How to Apply for the Permit(s) RAM Defense offers training for:

(any of these requirements are subject to change)

- Minnesota:
  - New:
    - Complete the RAM Defense LLC COMBINED/multi-state class.
    - Take the RAM Defense class training completion certificate in person to the Minnesota county sheriff's office of the county you reside in.
    - Tell them you're there to apply for a Minnesota Permit to carry.
    - They will give you the application if you do not have one already.
      - You can also get the application online (https://dps.mn.gov/divisions/bca/bca-divisions/administrative/Documents/Permit-to-Carry-a-Pistol-Application.pdf) before you arrive.
        - Do NOT sign it until in their presence.
          - Just in case that particular sheriff's dept. makes that demand.
    - They will make a copy of the class/training certificate and your official ID.
    - Pay up to $100 max for a new application, up to $75 max for a renewal, up to $85 max for a renewal of an application that expired within the last 30 days.
    - The sheriff's department must issue your permit within 30 days or deny it based on requirements spelled out by law (https://www.revisor.mn.gov/statutes/?id=624.714).
  - Renewal:
    - Same process within 30 to 90 days of expiration date.
- Utah:
  - New:
    - Complete the RAM Defense LLC COMBINED/multi-state class.
    - Upon request, RAM Defense will issue you a certified Utah app and a checklist of what you need to send by mail.
    - Fill out the top half of the Utah app and sign.
    - Get fingerprinted by a law enforcement agency and print on the Utah card.
      - If digital, it takes longer but you get better prints.
      - If wet ink, quicker but could get worse prints the FBI rejects.
    - Get a passport quality photograph of yourself.
      - Can use a phone app like Passport Photo Editor.
      - Or, check with county offices, photography studio, or passport photo service.
    - Make a copy of your official ID.
    - Send the application by mail with $87 and the required attachments to the address on the application by mail.
    - MN residents are NO LONGER REQUIRED to send a copy of their MN Permit to Carry as of August 2015.
    - Can take up to 90 days to get the permit back.
  - Renewal:
    - Fill out the one page renewal application physical form and sign or fill it out online.
    - Include a recent passport quality photograph.
    - Pay $25.
    - Submit by mail or online (https://bci.utah.gov/concealed-firearm/how-do-i-renew-my-concealed-firearm-permit/).
- Florida:
  - New:
    - Complete the RAM Defense LLC COMBINED/multi-state class.
    - Visit http://www.freshfromflorida.com/Divisions-Offices/Licensing/Concealed-Weapon-License and read/follow "First Time Applicants" section and instructions.
    - Save and/or print:
      - https://ramdefense.com/files/documents/howtoapplyforthepermits.pdf.
        - You should submit copies of the credentials as well as the completion certificate of the class you attended.
    - It will include a section to request a free blank FL fingerprint card.
      - Tip: could get fingerprinted for FL and/or UT (on the UT card) at the same time.
    - Mail these with $97 payment.
